

2/23/21 Board of Supervisors Meeting

Time: 1:30 PM

Due to public health and safety concerns related to the COVID-19 Pandemic the Livingston County Board of Supervisors has chosen to meet in a hybrid manner in that some Supervisors will be in person and some will be remote via Zoom. Attendance is allowed with masks and social distancing.

Per State and Federal bans on large gatherings and pursuant to Governor Cuomo's Executive Order 202.1 issued on March 12, 2020, including all subsequent extensions, "suspending law allowing the attendance of meetings telephonically or other similar service," the Livingston

This meeting will follow Roberts Rules of Order, will be recorded and later transcribed.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

RESOLUTION NO. 2021-67 RECOGNIZING AND HONORING LIVINGSTON COUNTY UPON THE OCCASION OF ITS BICENTENNIAL

WHEREAS, Livingston County was formed on February 23, 1821 from Ontario and Genesee Counties. The County was named in honor of Chancellor Robert R. Livingston, a man who never resided in Livingston County but who was among the Founding Fathers of the United States of America. Livingston co-authored the Declaration of Independence and was one of the key figures in negotiating the Louisiana Purchase; and

WHEREAS, Livingston County was originally comprised of just twelve (12) towns, specifically the Towns of Avon, Caledonia, Conesus, Geneseo, Groveland, Leicester, Lima, Livonia, Mount Morris, Sparta, Springwater, and York; and

WHEREAS, in 1822 a portion of North Dansville was annexed from Steuben County and became its own separate town in 1846 when Sparta was divided. The 1846 division of Sparta also created the Town of West Sparta. In 1846, the Towns of Nunda and Portage were annexed from Allegany County and the Town of Ossian was eventually annexed in 1857 making it the last town to join the County; and

WHEREAS, while the Town of Avon and the Hamlet of Lakeville competed for the honor of becoming county seat, it was the Town of Geneseo that ultimately won the distinction in 1821 and it has remained the county seat ever since; and

WHEREAS, today, February 23, 2021, marks Livingston County's Bicentennial. Such a monumental milestone is cause for commemoration and celebration throughout the year with historical, educational, artistic, and joyful events; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Livingston County Board of Supervisors hereby recognizes the importance of honoring the past 200 years of Livingston County's rich history and encourages all County departments, organizations, academic institutions and citizens to be a part of this year-long celebration in observance of this rare and important anniversary.
