Center for Sexual Health and Wellness Welcomes New Nurse Practitioner

December, 2021 – The Center for Sexual Health and Wellness has welcomed Lauren Burke, who is a Nurse Practitioner, to the comprehensive family planning and reproductive health team in Livingston County.

Lauren has extension education and experience in providing high quality, confidential services to teens and adults. She received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a Master of Science as a Family Nurse Practitioner from St. John Fisher College. She has practiced as a Registered Nurse at the University of Rochester Medical Center for several years. She is an Adjunct Clinical Instructor and works as a practitioner at other regional clinics.

In her role at the Center for Sexual Health and Wellness, Lauren will provide birth control, wellness exams, STD testing and treatment, and cancer screenings to thousands of Livingston County residents who come through our doors. She is an expert in sexual and reproductive health care and continues to stay up-to-date on the latest in family planning standards.

“I am so excited to join the Center for Sexual Health and Wellness team! In this new role, I look forward to both continuing and expanding our current services to patients to give them the highest quality care possible” stated Lauren Burke.

The Center for Sexual Health and Wellness, a program of the Livingston County Department of Health, has provided confidential, low or no cost services to Livingston County residents for 50 years!
